We offer an academic and workforce success program for returning veterans. The program consists of three college-credit, general education courses that will help you convert your military training and experience into lifelong success skills. The program is an on-ramp for getting your college degree and for improving your employability. You will learn how to succeed in school and develop proven skills for success in life.

The classes increase your resilience and ability to manage stress. You will improve your memory, strengthen your problem-solving skills, learn to succeed in academic and workplace settings, build a social network for support, and develop your leadership competencies.

Sign up now for the upcoming semester and build your pathway to success!
