Tuition Policy for Honorably Discharged Veteran Exception

Tuition and residency classification policy for Arizona's three universities (The University of Arizona, Arizona State University and Northern Arizona University) is set by the Arizona Board of Regents as authorized by the Arizona State Legislature. The general rule for resident classification for tuition purposes includes evidence of [illegible] continued physical presence with concurrent intent to be a resident of Arizona. The Arizona Board of Regents Policy on Residency can be found at: http://www.azregents.edu/policy/...

If however, a student can demonstrate the following conditions they may be eligible for an Arizona residency classification for tuition purposes without meeting the one-year duration requirement:

1) The student is domiciled in Arizona AND

The student has been Honorably Discharged from the armed forces of the United States

Attach the following documentation in support of your claim to the Honorably Discharged Veteran exception:

☐ DD-214 [illegible] showing Honorable Discharge AND

☐ Objective evidence of intent to become an Arizona resident; demonstrated by one of the following:

- Arizona driver's license
- Arizona vehicle registration
- Arizona voter registration https://www.servicearizona.com/VoterRegistration
- Employment history in Arizona
- Transfer of [illegible] banking services to Arizona
- Change permanent address of all pertinent records
- [illegible] materials of whatever kind or source relevant to domicile or residency status
